Date: 31.07.2026

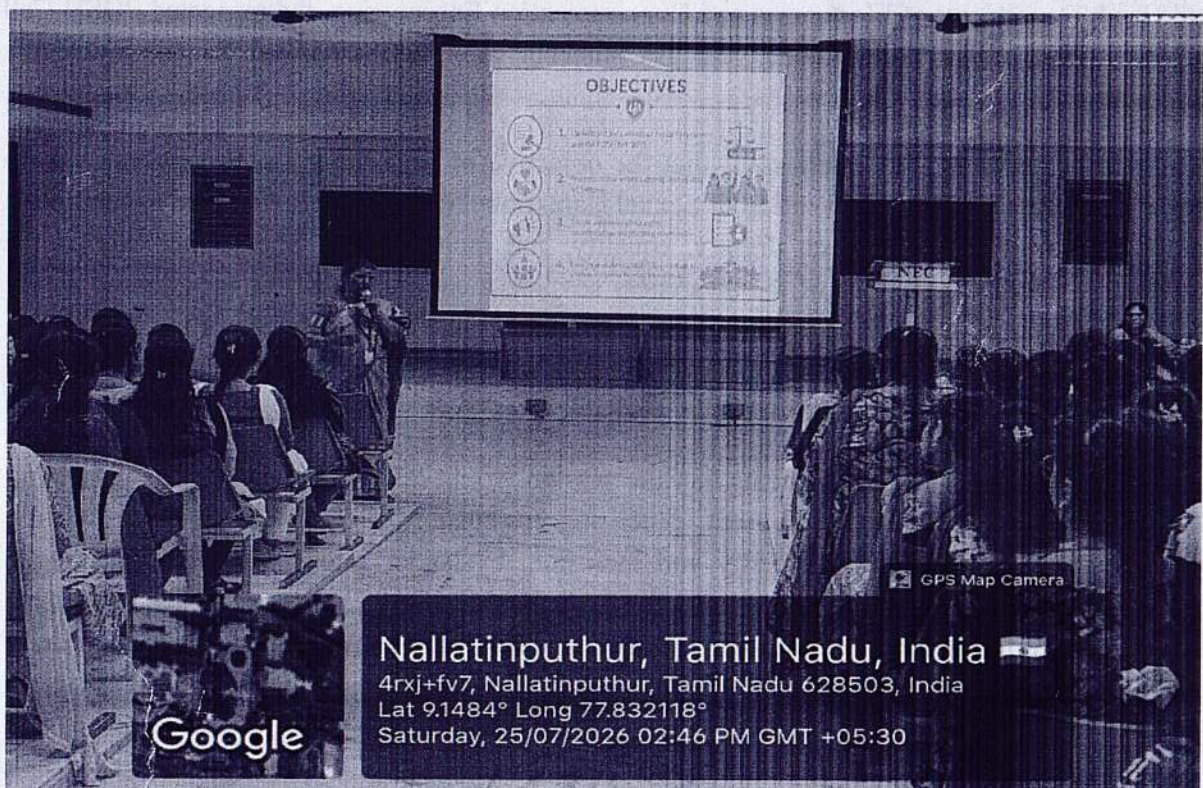

The POSH Cell of our college organized an awareness session on "Creating a Safe and Respectful Campus: POSH Awareness" on 25.07.2026 for all II-year girl students. The objective of this session is

- To create awareness about the Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH) Act and institutional policies.
- To educate students about identifying and responding to inappropriate behavior.
- To familiarize students with the Internal Committee (IC) and complaint redressal procedures.
- To promote confidence, respect and a safe learning environment.

The programme commenced with the Welcome Address delivered by Ms. N. Gowthami, Assistant Professor (Senior Grade), Department of Information Technology and POSH Secretary. She extended a cordial welcome to the resource person, Dr. S. Tamil Selvi, Professor and Head, Department of Electronics and Communication Engineering, the respected POSH Cell members, and nearly 170+ second year girl students who had assembled for the awareness programme.

In her address, she emphasized that the objective of organizing the programme was to create awareness about the Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH) Act, 2013 and to promote a campus culture built on respect, dignity, equality, and inclusiveness. She further briefed the participants about the purpose of the awareness session, mentioning that the programme would focus on understanding what constitutes sexual harassment, the key provisions of the POSH Act, the rights and responsibilities of students, the role of the Internal Committee (IC), and the institutional complaint redressal procedures available to support victims.

She also informed the students that the session would address topics such as respecting personal boundaries, obtaining consent, practising responsible digital behaviour, preventing cyber harassment, promoting diversity and inclusion, bystander intervention, and creating a respectful campus culture. She encouraged the participants to actively engage in the interactive discussions, clarify their doubts without hesitation, and apply the knowledge gained to their daily academic and social interactions.
